Eva had always been intrigued by the realm of magic, but she never envisioned that she would uncover her own magical heritage. She had spent her childhood in a normal family, living in a unassuming town, devoid of any signs of the supernatural. However, on her sixteenth birthday, her life took an unexpected turn. A intriguing package arrived, sent by her grandmother, who had left this world years ago. Within the package lay an aged leather-bound book, its cover adorned with the inscription, "The Book of Shadows". As Eva opened the book, a torrent of magic coursed through her veins. She realized that the book held the hidden mysteries of her family's magical lineage, and that she was the last descendant of a long line of formidable witches. But she also discovered that she was not alone. There were others like her, individuals who possessed similar abilities, and some of them sought to wield their magic for evil purposes. Eva faced a pivotal decision: embrace her destiny as a witch and delve into the world of sorcery, or reject her newfound powers and continue living her life as she had always known it. Regardless of her choice, she knew that her life would forever be changed beyond recognition from that moment forward.

Once you have completed your graphic novel, you need to start thinking about getting it published. There are a few different ways to do this:

**Submit your graphic novel to publishers.** There are many publishers that accept unsolicited submissions from graphic novel creators. You can find a list of publishers on the website of the GN Educators Forum.

**Self-publish your graphic novel.** Self-publishing is a great option for graphic novel creators who want to have more control over the creative process and the release of their work.

I hope this guide has been helpful. With hard work and dedication, you can create a graphic novel that is both entertaining and thought-provoking.
